- 11/06/2022 Theft of Catalytic Converter, 09:40 PM (Central Avenue): Complainants reported seeing an unknown person under a vehicle inside of a parking lot on Central Avenue. Responding Officers discovered that a vehicle was missing its catalytic converter. The suspect fled the area. Incident is under investigation.
- 11/07/2022 Theft of Catalytic Converter, 12:40 AM (Main Street): Officers responded on the report of a catalytic converter theft in progress. As officers were enroute, the complainant reported that the vehicle fled onto route 4. A search of the area produced negative results in locating the suspect vehicle but officers found one vehicle with a catalytic converter missing. The complainant was unable to provide any further information other than a large white SUV as the suspect vehicle. Incident is under investigation.
- 11/09/2022 Vehicle Burglaries, 01:30 AM (Washington Avenue): Officers responded to Washington Avenue on a report of a male wearing a black mask rummaging through vehicles. The suspect fled the area prior to police arrival. Incident is under investigation.
- 11/09/2022 Criminal Mischief/Graffiti (First street): A report was made that Hackensack High School had been vandalized over the weekend. An investigation was conducted and the suspects were identified. Two adults and one juvenile were taken into custody and complaints were signed.
- 11/12/2022 Driving While Intoxicated, 12:45 AM (Essex Street): An officer observed a vehicle remain stationary after the traffic light turned green. The officer then observed the driver sleeping in the driver's seat. An investigation was conducted and the driver was arrested for DWI.
- 11/12/2022 Shooting/Homicide 05:00 PM (Essex Street): Officers responded to Essex Street on a report of a man that was shot in front of a Barber Shop. The victim was rushed into surgery at Hackensack University Medical Center and died two hours later from his injuries. The matter is currently under investigation with the assistance of Bergen County Prosecutor's Office.
